CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank the friends and neighbors and especially the neighbors on Montgall avenue, also the Pathfinders Club, for their kindness and beautiful floral offering at the instance of the sickness and death of our husband, father and uncle, Mr. J. S. Quarles.

MRS. J. S. QUARLES,
MRS. L. C. ROSS,
MISS BLANCHE QUARLES,
MISS ETHEL JOHNSON,
MISS CLAUDIA L. QUARLES.

HON. W. CLARENCE HUESTON,

the brilliant young Attorney of Kansas City who is Worshipful Master of Mt. Oread Lodge, U. D., which boasts of ninety members.

There is a reason why the larger per cent of Cabinet Stationery used by Kansas City's "400" is turned from the Arthur W. Harris Printing Establishment. First their workmanship in this class of service is unexcelled by any of the larger and best equipped printing establishments in this city, since they all but make a specialty of this class of work. Second, while their prices are not always the lowest, they are always the fairest. They have "delivered" with accuracy and despatch to over 50 per cent of the class wedding and reception during the past year and now when a function of class is announced its a ten-to-one shot that Harris will handle the job.

On Wednesday evening the Social Pathfinders were entertained by Mrs. T. C. Uthank at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Groves, near Edwardsville, Kas., on the new Bonner Springs Interurban car line. About thirty-two young people from the city were present, and were joined by about twenty suburbanites. It was indeed the most delightful entertainment tendered the Pathfinders since their organization, and they are enthusiastic in their praises of the hostess and the spacious home thrown open to them.

A short program, including Miss Lewis, Miss Claudia Quarles, Mr. Spruell, Mrs. Frazier and Mr. Harris was rendered. Next meeting at Garrison Square, Wednesday evening, August 12. Election of officers. All members should be present.

Among the many pretty social affairs of the season was a mid-summer party given by the L. S. P. Club, who entertained elaborately with two hundred guests, at the Armory Hall, Tuesday evening, July 28th. The color scheme was pink Japanese tissue wash, entwining each waist line.

The grand march was led by Prof. Morton and Madam M. White, who wore a beautiful gown of white lace. Italian punch was served by the little Misses Myrtle Bain and Ruth Washington.

Music was furnished by Prof. Melford. The party was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Sherrill Brown, 932 Greeley avenue, Kansas City, Kas. The members are Misses Cora Black, Rosa Busch, Berenice Isaacs, Bertha Holland, Nannie Isaacs, Maybelle Jackson, Mary A. Johnson, Ella Maxwell, Inez Page, Nellie Plakney, Ida Williams, Malinda Willis and Callie Williams.

WORDS OF APPRECIATION.

More Mothers Testify to Merits of XXth Century Hair Preparations.

Nelson, Mo., April 13, 1915.

Dear Madam Dabney: I am writing you for a small order. I want you to please send by mail 3 bottles of shampoo, 3 boxes of hair grower and 2 boxes of pressing oil. I like the remedy just fine; I am using it on my little girl's hair; it seems to be helping it greatly.

MRS. ANNA BRUNER.
Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 20, 1913.
Dear Madam Dabney: I am a mother of four girls. In trying to improve their hair I had tried several preparations, but none gave me good results until I used Madam Dabney's XXth Century Preparations. Their hair was thin, harsh and would fall out so that I dreaded to use a comb. Now their hair is growing nicely—does not fall out—has no dandruff—is soft and pretty. Three of these girls are attending Wendell Phillips School, Howard and Vine streets. Investigation will bear out my testimony. I would not be without the XXth Century Preparation in my house.

MRS. DORA HAWKINS,
2455 Woodland Ave.
A six week's treatment of Madam P. M. Dabney's XXth Century Hair Preparations sent on receipt of P. O. money order of $1.25, or a single package of XXth Century Hair Grower,

NO JOKE.
The Publisher—You never write any more funny stories about piano playing and players.
The Humorist—No, my daughter has started to take lessons.

Hard to Choose.
He was an ardent fisherman
And longed to fish, each day;
But he was a real baseball fan
And couldn't get away.

Willing.
"You want to win your case, don't you?" asked the lawyer of his balky client.
"Certainly I do," replied the client.
"Well, then, listen to me. There must be some lying done."
"Well, I'll leave everything to you, Counselor!"

The Wiggler.
Patience—Did you ever notice how she appears to be perfectly at home in the water?
Patience—Yes, she can swim like a fish in the water.
"Sure, and wiggles like an eel out of water."

Wear on the Tongue.
Church—It is said that many of the Sandwich Island women have their husbands' names tattooed on their tongues.
Gotham—If they talk like some women I know, it would speedily be worn off, I guess.

Troubles.
Redd—This paper says the Amer of Afghanistan owns 58 automobiles, and he is forty-two years old.
Green—Well, we've known men to own only one machine and feel older than that.

He Had It.
Dancingman—O, have you come across the latest sensation in dancing?
Hadit—Yep. The latest one with me is a sore foot.

Can't Be Told Quickly.
"What did your wife say to you for remaining down town so late last night?"
"Well, if you have an hour to spare I can give you a synopsis of it."

What Is a Luxury?
Meandering Mike—Here's a New York druggist calling soap a luxury.
Weary Willie—Luxury nothin'; it's a nuisance!—Buffalo Express.
